3. Kako Uvil to pamato, a man Marga korkoro.
A garavla kaj geli, tilatari za vogi.
// So danav (Chi zhalau?) so te kerav, pala late me merav. // 4 x

Notes on the pronunciation: Sometimes the "v" is spoken like "u", so it sounds like "kerau" or "merau". If something is written in brackets, that's the way I heard it. The words before the brackets are the way Xenos have written it.

Translation according to Xenos:

With tutti frutti soft drink, we're dancing and singing and living it up, we'll smash the bottles. I had a lover, what can I do about it? I'll die anyway.

All the Roma are dancing, mother, are drinking together.

Uncle Uvil is "lid drunk". His wife Marga is afraid because she thinks he'll go off with someone else.
